(b) if so, the details thereof; and

(c) if not, the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF URBAN DEVELOPMENT (SHRI BANDARU DATTATREYA): (a) to (c) Yes, Sir. Sometime back there was a proposal to link Parliament House with Parliament House Annexe by constructing a subway across Talkatora Road. Preliminary scheme for this was submitted by CPWD to Lok Sabha Secretariat vide letter No. CE/23(37)/PLP/98 dated 26-5-98. No decision in this regard has been communicated by Lok Sabha Secretariat to CPWD so far.

Violation of CCS (Conduct) Rules by CPWD Employees

1985. SHRI ANANTRAY DEVSHANKER DAVE: Will the Minister of URBAN DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) the details of the employees of CPWD (Circle VII, R. K. Puram, New Delhi) who are working as CPWD approved contractors in the name of their family members in violation of CCS (conduct) Rules;

(b) whether it is a fact that M/s. Bhagwati Enterprises which has been awarded contracts amounting to lakhs of rupees is being run by an employees of Circle VII, R. K. Puram and the firm has used materials of sub-standard quality in connivance with CPWD officials; and

(c) if so, the action taken in the matter?

THE MINISTER OF URBAN DEVELOPMENT (SHRI JAGMOHAN): (a) Presently, no employee of CPWD Circle VII, R. K. Puram, New Delhi is working as contractor in the name of his family members. However, wife of Shri Devendra Kumar, UDC who had worked in CPWD Circle VII upto 21.6.1999 is working as contractor through the firm of M/s. Bhagwati Enterprises. The firm was registered in December, 1991. Under rule 15(3) of CCS (Conduct) Rules, 1964, Shri Devendra Kumar was required to intimate the Government about the engagement of his wife in the business of contractorship. Inquiry is being conducted to ascertain whether intimation under rule 15(3) of the CCS (Conduct) rules, 1964 was given by Shri Devendra Kumar, before his wife's firm was registered with CPWD and whether any provision of rules or instructions was violated.

(b) and (c) M/s. Bhagwati Enterprises, registered as Class V contractor in CPWD in the name Smt. Bhagwati, wife of Shri Devendra Kumar, UDC of CPWD (who is presently not an employee of CPWD Circle VII, R. K. Puram), has been awarded works as per list enclosed as statement (See below). The firm has not used any substandard material and no connivance of CPWD officials, has come to notice.
